chores outside the house, and whenever we had guests, no matter what the circumstances, our women should do all the housework, dishes and serve as hostess. Amen!--unless they offered!

39. WELL, CARLOS ONLY LASTED THREE DAYS AT OUR HOUSE because our devotions got a little too convicting for him. He was having lots of personal problems due to his rejecting the Lord and Davidito as his own, and was even considering marrying his childhood girlfriend, after all Dad had offered him!

40 ONE MORNING SOON AFTERWARDS, PAPA MARCOS (CARLOS' FATHER) GREETED US AT OUR BACK GATE with a big sack of potatoes he had brought from his fields as a love gift for the Family. He was so shy, he didn't even want to come in; he just said, "This is for you all" with a sweet smile.

41. DAD CRIED WHEN HE HEARD ABOUT IT and explained, "Papa Marcos knows we are trying to help Carlos. That was his humble way of telling us thank you for trying to help his son."

42. MOMMY ALWAYS MADE SURE THAT DADDY DIDN'T READ THE MAIL BEFORE BREAKFAST TIME, or he might read some kind of disappointing news and be too sad to eat. That's why it was such a joy and victory for MO and Maria to see Davidito playing in the garden during their breakfast first thing in the morning. He always adds sunshine to our day!

"THE BANNER OF LOVE!"--15 Mos. Old--By Sara Davidito. 5/76 DFO-S26
--Chapter 29 of "Davidito".

1. ON YOUR MARK!...GET SET! ...GO! We've had fun running races for a long time now, ever since he was at this toddler age and on. He's got such strong, cute little legs.--You just can't imagine his agility and how fast he can run from all that good exercise: running, football and climbing!

2. WHEN WALKING UP THE STAIRS, HE TRIES JUST ONE STEP AT A TIME, just like big people do, instead of putting two feet together on each step before taking the next step up, like most toddlers. And he always wants to put on his own cologne from the bottle, just like Daddy does.

3. A GERMAN MAN FRIEND OF OURS GAVE US A NICE AQUARIUM that we placed at low eye-level where Davidito can watch the fish and plants. Sweet Pedro, our FF Canarian disciple, also gave us a pretty little Canary bird that Daddy loved to hear sing during his brunch on the porch every afternoon. Feeding our two new pets gave Davidito a little responsibility to be faithful in every day.
