

5. DADDY SAID, "DAVIDITO MUST BE SPEAKING MORE ENGLISH NOW here in the city because the Durazno village spirits aren't hindering him any more." Dito is really, really learning to talk, even making little sentences on his own now in English. During this time, he also began to read like a whiz from the sight-reading method that we've shared with you in earlier chapters.

6. DADDY SAID TO ME ONE MORNING, "I WAS PRAYING ABOUT ALL WE HAVE TO TEACH OUR CHILDREN, and I thought, Oh my goodness, there is so much to learn! I thought I was all through with that with my first children, but now we're really just beginning! And I'm so glad that we have some help, honey."

7. WE OFTEN WONDERED THEN WHAT IT WAS GOING TO BE LIKE TO SHARE THE STORY OF DAVIDITO with our worldwide Family. It seemed there was already so much to tell, and I honestly didn't have the vision that this story would be out for many, many years to come, maybe until he was even a teenager. Imagine!

8. DADDY, DAVIDITO AND I SPENT ONE AFTERNOON EXPLORING A BIG NEARBY HOTEL, We discovered on the top floor there a bar and billiard room where we returned to play several times. Daddy would witness to the waiters and people who greeted him while Davidito rolled the balls back and forth on the pool table and actually scored!

9. EVERYONE WHO WATCHED HIM PLAY POOL WAS AMAZED THAT DITO KNEW EXACTLY WHICH COIN TO CHOOSE out of Daddy's hand that would fit into the machine. He knew how to insert the coin and where the balls fell out, which one was the "cue" ball, etc. And the waiters knew just what he needed when Dito would strut over to the bar with a bill to change for more coins to play pool!

10. MANY TIMES ON OUR DAILY AFTERNOON WALKS WITH MOMMY AND DADDY ALONG THE BOARDWALK, DADDY WOULD STOP AND TALK TO A SWEET 19 YEAR OLD RETARDED BOY who sells postcards on the street, named Lolo. Daddy once laid hands on Lolo and prayed he'd be healed from his serious headaches, and the next week Lolo ran excitedly to us to say that God had completely healed him! PTL!

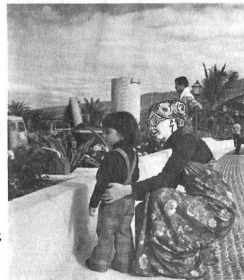

11. DAD REALLY LOVED HIM AND WITNESSED TO HIM at every meeting. He almost gave Lolo his gold watch, but didn't since Lolo couldn't yet tell time or take proper care of it.

12. ON DITO'S SECOND BIRTHDAY

WE TOOK A LONG WALK THROUGH TOWN WITH MOMMY AND DADDY, and Daddy bought him a little furry animal toy from a store that belongs to one of our friends. Every time

We always stop to watch the construction site on our walks.

Daddy would walk down the Puerto city street and greet people, or sit in a cafe or store, the local people would come to listen to him talk and ask questions. Davidito was usually a very good little boy during Mommy and Daddy's witness to the people.

13. WHILE MEETING SO MANY NEW FRIENDS DURING THIS FF BOOM in Tenerife, Daddy witnessed to and won a sweet, lonely 24-year-old Belgian girl named Monica. She was trying to find a new job there and was fairly well known in town for being "free" and a devout lesbian.

14. MONICA HAD NEVER HAD A FAMILY DURING THIS LOVED HER, but had lived on her own since the age of 12. Dad offered that she could come and work for us, even though
