

More about Mama

by Mama!

How would you describe yourself as a person?

It's interesting, isn't it, the difference between the way people see us and imagine us to be ...

... and the way we see ourselves.

If I wanted to give you an accurate reading, I should probably just ask the Lord to describe me to you.—But since you asked me, I'll give a little description.

You know I feel very shy.

Since shyness is really pride, through the Lord's humblings I'm becoming less shy and self-conscious.

I'm also a very curious person.

I like to learn new things and hear all the details about things.

One of the things I love so much about prophecy—besides the fact that it's the Lord speaking to us directly and giving us His love and life-giving Words—is that I learn so much through it!

I love the feeling of having a really big question that I don't know the answer to, and then receiving the answer from the Lord. It makes perfect sense and teaches me so much and completely solves the problem!

It's such a thrill!

It's like Christmas for me when I receive a big batch of tapes outside my door with new messages from the Lord on them!

Or on our prayer morning, when everyone takes some time to hear from the Lord, I get an extra amount of messages from the Lord!

I also love you and I love to hear from you. It's very interesting, and through your letters I feel like I know you personally.

Look, Peter!
More messages from Jesus! Thank You,
Lord!

... and when I asked the Lord what to do, He told me ...

I just love to hear from you!

Although I'm shy, I do love people and getting to know them and understand them.

When I used to go out with Dad, when my eyes were better, I used to love to sit in a little café or public place with Grandpa and "people watch."

We'd enjoy seeing the many types of people and their different personalities and characteristics.

I enjoy talking with our folks here, which I do mostly over the intercom.

We mostly discuss our work, but it's still very interesting and enjoyable for me. Thank the Lord!

I don't feel very "queenly."

but since the Lord has made me your queen, I accept that role. I do my best to serve you in love. But I feel very much like anyone else. It's very easy for me to put myself in others' shoes and imagine what they're going through.

I feel just like you!

I enjoy things that most women probably enjoy ...

... like wearing something that Peter or the boys like, or dressing up for a special occasion.

I enjoy the wonderful pleasures in life that the Lord has given us to enjoy—

I can't use my eyes as much now, but I still enjoy looking at things, and especially people, when I can.

And the Lord has given us a very rewarding ministry of getting out His Words to you, and that's what I enjoy the very most ...

... hearing His fresh, wonderful Words from Heaven, and "packaging" them for you!

And then hearing from you about them, or about further needs or questions.

Ben and Katy in India said they just loved the new Activated GNs, it totally renewed their vision

Oh, that's wonderful!

I couldn't ask for anything more fulfilling in life!
I love you!
