MY MOTHER'S HOMEGOING.

Dearly Beloved in the Lord:

March, 1965

Huntington Beach, Calif.

Greetings in Jesus dear name! "The time to favour her, yea, the set time is come."
"For in the time of trouble He shall hide me in His pavilion." Psalms 102:13 & 27:5.

The Lord spoke this first Scripture to my heart as I was praying for her Wednesday morning after Mother had phoned that she was not feeling well, that she was very weary.

The second Scripture was His answer as I held her hand in prayer for His will Friday morning as she quietly passed on to be with Him in her sleep, March 30, 1965.

"All day such sweet, peaceful voices have been calling me with such reassurance, saying 'Come now and you will not have to go through the Great Confusion that is coming very soon!'; She told me Thursday when I returned to pray with her.

In the wee hours of the next morning she answered that call—"the time to favour her, yea, the set time" came, and in this time of trouble He has hidden her in His pavilion!

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints!" "Blessed are they which die in the Lord—their works do follow them!" "The Lord hath given, and the Lord hath taken away: blessed be the name of the Lord!" "Not our will, but Thine be done."

"David, when I go, I want to go quickly and at home—not with a long lingering illness or in some hospital—so please don't pray for me to linger when the time comes" she had asked of me just a month before when discussing my Father's illness and death. "Please release me, she said. But if God Himself had not given me those two Scriptures to prepare and comfort us, it might have been nearly impossible to let her go, we needed her so!

I am sure you must feel the same—she was so needed! Yet she too had needs. Read the rest of that Psalm. "My days are like a shadow that declineth; and I am withered like grass... hear the groaning of the prisoner... loose those that are appointed to death... they shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shall thou change them." Hallelujah!

Just three years ago she had received the prophecy from the Lord: "So sudden will be the Great Confusion that it will cause a mighty widening of the eyes of those who have not discerned the signs of the times; but be ye not deceived—be prepared. And be not deceived by the Great Society, for it shall come to travail and then bring forth the Great Confusion! As she watched this come to pass lately, she was urged Thursday to "Go now" to avoid the worst which is soon to come—and she has gone, praise His holy name forever! Amen.

"Keep not for her, but rather weep for yourselves and the things which shall soon befall you!" God in His great mercy has seen fit to spare her from these things, hiding her in His pavilion.

Born the daughter of a great Christian minister, Dr. John L. Brandt, on May 27, 1886, in Rancocase, W. Va., she became an atheist in a modern university and a total invalid for nearly five years until gloriously saved and instantly healed in answer to prayer, to go out for nearly 50 years helping others to find the same wonderful Savior! Laboring long and hard as an evangelist, broadcaster, author and leader in the life of faith, she won countless thousands to Him who has now called her to her great reward.

"One thing have I desired...that I may dwell in the house of the Lord... And now shall my head be lifted up... I will sing praises unto the Lord!" "Then the Lord shall build up Zion He shall appear in His glory... when the people are gathered together, and the kingdoms, to serve the Lord... thy years shall have no end... This shall be written for the generation to come... The children of thy servants shall continue." And that we are endeavoring to do!

Will you help us?—we hope to keep her Little cottage open and one of us always near the phone through which she has ministered so much in recent years in prayer, and to try to continue to counsel and pray for you who phone here from all over the world, while some of us continue to serve Him in the field by faith. Please pray—and write.—We need you too!—Thank you!—And God bless you!—David & Jane & Family & Teens for Christ.
