Well, it was coming up to my birthday, and dear Becky had phoned twice already, but I had almost forgotten all about her. She said she had something for me from Maria, which was a beautiful love letter and a typed letter with an ink sketch of a ram on a mountain. The letter was an observation of my nature and the tendencies of Aries people, and I couldn't believe how accurate it was! What a birthday present!

I asked Becky if I could take her out to dinner, but I had to wait a week before she could manage it!

She was my ideal woman! She was very intelligent, was bright, and had a sense of humour! Wow! I knew this was the one! Something inside me told me this was the one!

She looked beautiful! The heart of her beauty was, and is, in her eyes!

We went to a restaurant, then drove to the park to look at the lake in the moonlight. . . . then chatted and kissed and spent a most wonderful night in each other's arms!
I saw lots of people kissing and hugging each other including men!!! Most strange I thought! Just what are these people? Then Becky gave me a leaflet called "Don Quixote" and on the front cover was the name "Moses David". Moses David... I stared in amazement and then studied the poem. It was the same technique and rhyming that David used in a paraphrase of a poem I'd written for them. Whew!!! Moses David.

David!!! The whole thing fitted! Wow, I thought, so that's what he writes! Moses David!! "Copyrighted by the Children of God." I had never heard of them! I asked Becky what it was all about, so we went home and she told me all---well most of what I wanted to know. She told me all of her beliefs and about her love of God! She was so serious, that I felt the same way!

She invited me to a meeting, and there it was, I met Josh, who read a MD letter called "Que Sera, Sera!" He made me feel very insignificant and nothing! All eyes were on him and I was so jealous!!

On the way home I was really mean to Becky! I was really upset and still shaking from the effect the meeting had on me! Becky started to tell me how much the Lord loves me and how I could feel that love just by praying and asking the Lord to come into my heart and help me to get rid of this jealousy. Just then, I had two really clear visions in my mind. One was a long tunnel and the light from the far end was really bright yellow. We dozed off and the next morning I distinctly remembered another vision. It was a steel amour material glove holding skyward, buried just below the elbow in a dried and cracked hollow, like an enormous dried-out water hole. I couldn't wait to tell Becky and she was so excited!!
Arthur asked me if I had ever hypnotised anybody, because I was hypnotising him. He said, "Becky, you've done something to me, I've got you under my skin! I couldn't hardly do any work, because I was thinking about you! I like you because you have such a peace! I've never been so happy for such a long time!"

I didn't expect all this to happen so quickly! I know the Lord will lead, but if you have any suggestions, I'd really appreciate them. He must sense there is something the same about you and me---the Spirit! He asked me if we were related. If only he knew how closely related we really are in the Spirit! I kept telling him how much I loved you and Maria and that it was your love that had helped and changed me. I told him that the love I had for him was from you and I told him the peace I had in my heart was because I really had faith in God.

"Dearest Becky! You're going to have him solidly hooked before he finally finds out who the fisherman is and what a kettle of fish he's gotten himself into! He's so Flipped over you that he just can't live without your kind of love--which of course is our kind of love and all the Lord's love! So this should all follow along very naturally for you to lead him closer into your life, work, and to know your friends and faith. To say the least, it will be a good test of his love for you, and bring him to a decision as to whether he's going to be willing to accept the rest as well! It's time to either catch your fish or let him get away. He's got to learn that you belong to the Lord and the kids and your work and even me, and that you're only on loan... he can't have you full-time forever! The only way he can keep you even part-time or be with you even more, is to join you in your work!"
