Here are a few rules of behaviour for you when dancing in clubs, ballrooms or discotheques:

After only 2 or 3 musical numbers of dancing with a man, you should be able to tell whether he is receptive. If he's not worth spending your whole evening on, you should say:

"Thank you! Can you take me to my seat?"

If your partner is a stinker, then teach him a lesson.

"I'm sorry -- you must be gay!"

The minute the music stops at the end of that number, just walk off.

Dancing close and affectionately is the next best thing to being in bed, because the gos just open up their hearts and they humble themselves.
Never accept a dance from a fellow who hasn't got the courtesy to look at your fisherman too and ask him, and you ought to look at him too for permission before you accept their invitation. If you don't, it's your fault! Having permission doesn't mean you go off and dance with them all evening! Dance a couple numbers and then come back.

Not everybody deserves to sit at your table just those that are chosen. They're like the people that the Lord talked about who wanted the high seat and then had to be told to go down. Better pick the low seat and then be invited up! (Luke 7:14) Or you may be cast out into outer darkness, where there is weeping and gnashing of teeth. (Mt 22:13)

Remember, the main thing we're there for is to be a witness! The sample without the sermon means nothing. You're going to have to please your fisherman, Jesus, by getting results.

If you want to get to know somebody better, the best thing to do is to keep dancing until you get the story on them. If you find out through dancing with them they're really worthwhile, you're going to know that.

Take a little tip from Dale Carnegie who wrote, "How to Win Friends and Influence People." Ask questions about their lives:

Where were you born?
Are your mother and father still alive?
Have you got brothers and sisters?
Where do you live?

If you don't want to sit there all night long and listen to their life story, then you don't love them. A. A. And then my mother always used to kiki kiss me goo goo goo, goodnight!

You're a soul doctor and it's your business to listen to the patient. Then you can begin to give them the answers to their problems: Singing the love of God.

(See, "The Story of Jesus." PAG-69)
But you're not going to know what they need unless you ask them and get them to talk. I'll never forget that time in Miami. I was talking to this Communist Jew. He started screaming. Soon there was a crowd. Would you just let me read this little passage here in the Bible, your Old Testament... It talks about Jesus’ suffering. May I read this?

For God's sake, don't just get up there and start preaching at them! Pull them out! Draw them out! If you have just gotten them to unburden their hearts to you and to confess and to pour out to you, you've done it. If the Lord gives you time to give them the answer the first time, fine!

Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God. How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. (John 3: 3-7)

However, in closed Catholic countries use Catholic versions if possible. The Truth is still here!
The whole idea of Fling is not that you're just trying to get them into bed—you're trying to get them into the Kingdom! You're trying to show God's love to a lost soul, a sinner who needs it. Show them the beauty and the love of the Lord.

We're talking about God's love of the heart!
That's what they need the most, let's face it!
But we are willing to go to any lengths of love to win them, like the Lord did!
Only go as far as necessary to win their heart without just throwing yourself at them.
It can come to sex sometimes, and sometimes, you have to give them sex in order to really convince them. But that is the last resort. But you don't have...

HAPPY FISHING! GBY!
