PRAYER CAN CHANGE GOD'S MIND!

THE WOMEN WITH MORE MERCY THAN GOD!
That's true, and it's illustrated by mothers with children. Just because the child is bad, the mother doesn't forsake it. With us men, as far as we're concerned, it's take it or leave it. If somebody doesn't appreciate us, I'm fed up with them—I don't even want to fool with them anymore.

But you women have much more mercy. You're probably more like the Holy Spirit and you are symbolic of the Holy Spirit. God is the Father and the Holy Spirit is the Mother—like you women.

Most of the great mediums are women. How many male mediums are there?—Very few! Women are like a radio set in tune with the spiritual, and receptive, responsive.

They go more on their emotions and feelings and these inexplicable hunches and urges, these inexplicable ESP communications and so on.

You women have a mother's love for these men—And do you notice how the men keep coming back, they keep running back to mother! They know where they can get the mercy when they need it.

"If you won't save them, your own children, then blot me out of Your Book" (Ex. 32:32.)

I was trying to think of a Scriptural example of that. Could it be possible that sometimes we even have more mercy than God Himself? -- And why?

The first example that came to me was Moses: When God was so angry with Israel that He wanted to destroy them all, Moses pled for them and stood in God's way (Ex. 32:10-14.)

Instantly another example came to me: This is why He sent Jesus, so that Jesus could be a man and know how it is to be human and therefore could understand us and have more mercy on us better and therefore could be our Intercessor and Mediator with God Himself. (I Tim. 2:5.) So if Jesus is in our heart, He's on our side. He's our Intercessor, He's our High Priest. (Heb. 4:14-16.)

Which shows that Jesus Himself was more merciful than God the Father, in a sense, because He is human and has been through it, and being human, He can understand us more, and...
... have more compassion on us and have more patience with us and more mercy on us than God Himself!

Mt. 3:2

"LOOK AT THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN JOHN THE BAPTIST AND JESUS!"

The prophets are really more like God as the voice and mouthpiece of God, representing God Himself and usually predicting doom and judgment and punishment and the lowering of the rod, the chopping of the axe! Look at the difference between the Baptist and Jesus! John the Baptist, his whole message was one of doom and thunder and judgment and repent of your sins or God is going to do you in, and all that, which was all true. Then along came Jesus and still, just before God was going to wipe them out, He still had mercy, love and patience with them and even died for them, think of it!

The man who changed God's mind! Moses was a type of Christ and he prayed for the people, so God repented of the evil He would do to Israel. No wonder those Jews worship Moses—he was more merciful to them than God!

"The women with more mercy than God!"

That must be why Jesus said, "Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them." (Jn.20:23) If you can forgive, then God will forgive them!

"LOVE NEVER FAILS!"

"FOR GOD IS LOVE!"
